

Aquarius Rising

Winter and Spring Programme 2005

February 22nd Michael Slaughter - Chinese Astrology

Tonight we broaden our horizons with what promises to be a fascinating talk on Chinese astrology. The method used by Feng Shui Masters is known in Chinese as "Chi Ping Ba Zi". In the West it is called "Four Pillars Astrology". Tonight's talk is called "How to predict Your Luck" Curious? So are we! Come along and see what the future holds for you!

March 25th Maggi, Pam and Carole - Back to Basics

In the beginning were the planets. Yes, there's a chance this evening to brush up on basic skills. We hope to appeal to beginners and those who have been around astrology for a while with a look at the main building blocks of the chart - Sun, Moon, Ascendant and planets. Bring along your chart to discover what makes you tick!

April 26th Maggi, Pam and Carole - Celebrity Charts

When people are drawn together, to quote the Waterboys, "the planets collide." We put this to the test tonight with a look at some interesting pairings. Pam will explore the links between the two Alfes - Michael Caine and Jude Law. Maggi will look for the connection between J. M. Barrie and Johnny Depp. Carole will delve into the rise and fall of Hollywood's golden couple, Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston.

May 31st Sheila O'Hara - Minor Aspects

We all know our squares are challenging, our oppositions need balancing and our trines flow easily. But what about our quincunxes, semi-sextiles and sesquiquadrates? We are delighted to welcome Sheila tonight to shed light on these lesser known but equally significant aspects of the birth chart. Intrigued? We hope so! This promises to be an illuminating experience.

June 18th Nick Grier - Electional Astrology

We choose moments to do things all the time - when to make a presentation, to change jobs, to get married, to move house. The examples are as varied as we ourselves are. Tonight Nick shows us how to use the energies of the planets to maximise the success of our projects by looking at transits and inceptional charts to discover the best possible moment. Success guaranteed? Come and find out! Life may never be the same again!
